

Who We Are

Voices Unlimited is Worcestershire's biggest adult contemporary vocal group, based in the City of Worcester. Formed in 2008, VU is an independent choir (not a franchise) and to that end is genuinely 'of Worcester', serving the local community.

VU has around 100 keen members who have sung their hearts out in such disparate venues as Worcester Cathedral, Gloucester Cathedral, Worcester Guildhall, The Artrix Theatre, Pershore No 8, Huntingdon Hall, The Swan Theatre, The West Midlands Safari Park, Croome Court, and Lakefest Festival in 2019.

VU is in partnership with Royal Porcelain Works Worcester, and performs regularly at the Hall, and in the outside performance area.

The Boss

VU is led by Ria Keen, our Musical Director. She's been a professional musician her whole life, having been singing since before she spoke; she started gigging at the age of 12 under her Dad's watchful eye! Having never had a 'real job', her work has taken her from national touring to the recording studio, from TV to radio, and from session work to writing, international record deals, arranging and producing – singing everywhere from the local pub to the London Palladium and pretty much everything in between!

In her 'other life', Ria is a highly trained singing teacher and vocal coach (yes, these are different things) and holds a PhD, a Masters and a B.Phil in her subject, as well as having a Cert.Ed in Further, Adult and Higher Education. Her 'day job' is being Principal and lead course designer at The Voice College, which is a bit like the Open University for Singing Teachers.
